SUR L'ENVIRONNEMENT ET LES MINES

SYMPOSIUM 2002 ON MINES AND THE ENVIRONMENT: Challenges & Future Prospects

RESERVE IN YOUR AGENDA!

ROUYN-NORANDA, QUEBEC, CANADA • NOVEMBER 3, 4 & 5, 2002

The Université du Québec en Abitibi-Témiscamingue, in collaboration with The Canadian Institute of Mining, Metallurgy and Petroleum, invite you to attend the first Symposium on Mines and the Environment in Rouyn-Noranda next November 3, 4 and 5.

Canada Economic Development, MEND and le Ministère des Ressources naturelles du Québec (MRN) are also participating in the preparation of this special event where "simultaneous translation will be available."

The Symposium will feature groundbreaking information on research, development, practices and regulations affecting the mining industry: the objective is to find solutions to reconcile profit and environmental protection.

The Technical Program will last two days and will address the following themes:

Concentrator tailings – Waste rock – Restoration – Filling – Toxicity – Contaminated water – Rulings guiding the industry

Visit the Symposium web site and read the abstracts of the 31 presentations the authors are now working on.

On Sunday, November 3rd, a workshop on the sensitive issue of Acid Mine Drainage (AMD) will be thoroughly investigated from 9:00 to 17:00 before the official conference starts.

A small trade show will also feature 20 Exhibitors who will present their latest products and services.

More activities are being planned to entertain you in your spare time.
